Chapter 1 by Stas Borisenko

One day, Michael woke up in his small, cramped room, and decided that he will not longer live this way. He got out of bed, walked to the window. Looked around. And he said to himself, "I will not go back to this hateful office, will not stay in this miserable apartment, I sit in the car and go away very far" And you know what? He really got into the car and drove off very far, but poor Michael, if he only knew how all this will end ... Although, it does not matter now, he raced forward under heavy metal sounds and only one phrase was in his mind - " Just go"
